

Skinhairgium®Bio by Laboratoires Expanscience,
a new, eco-socially designed active ingredient for hair care, wins the "Green Ingredient" Silver Award at the 2019 In Cosmetics trade show

"We are proud to receive this award recognizing our CSR commitments. With one single plant, maca, we can produce 2 active ingredients. Upcycling is essential for us. With Skinhairgium Bio, we are reasserting our dual expertise in skin and hair," says Armelle Le Peniec, Director of Cosmetic Active Ingredients at Laboratoires Expanscience.

This prize, awarded by a jury of experts in cosmetics, is recognizing Expanscience's know-how in innovation and its involvement in the eco-social design of its 100% natural cosmetic active ingredients. This new eco-socially designed cosmetic active ingredient has been accredited the ERI 360° label.
